Play Up Policy

On an exceptional basis, RYBL will allow a player to play up by one year, but only on the basis that we receive in writing that a parent/guardian:

- 1) Acts either as a Head Coach or Assistant Coach for the team (which we believe is necessary given the expected varying degrees of maturity involved with mixing players within a three-four year age range),
- 2) Expressly accepts the additional risk posed to their child of playing up a division with RYBL, and
- 3) Expressly releases RYBL from any attendant liability for same.

RYBL does not permit players to play up by more than one year, nor does it allow Jr. T-Ball or Sr. T-Ball players to play up unless accommodating siblings.

Pitching Machine and Generator Safety

1. No player is allowed within 10' of the pitching machine EVER
2. If a coach has long hair, he/she must wear a hat or helmet with hair tucked under so that no loose hair can get caught in the rotating wheel, causing serious injury.
3. Ensure all loose clothing is secure.
4. Keep the extension cord as short as possible and coiled up to reduce chance of tripping or getting caught in rotating machine.
5. Place the ball bucket in front of the generator to keep batted balls from hitting the generator directly.

Batting Cage Safety & Protocol

1. Only one batter in the cage at a time
2. Only the coach is permitted to operate the pitching machine and only he or she can be in the room with the machine
3. Nobody with long hair may be in the pitching machine room unless hair is secured back and under a batting helmet
4. All batters and those waiting to bat must be wearing secured batting helmets.
5. Warm up swings should be taken by "on deck" players in a designated area as specified by the coach, well away from others. Alternatively - warm up swings may be taken once in the Batting Cage. Please use your discretion in devising a safe warm up plan.

Rowan's Law

This MUST be discussed at coaches' meetings.

RYBL takes concussion matters seriously and, as an organization, expects all coaches to know and follow all OBA policies regarding Rowan's Law and concussion safety.

Each RYBL Head Coach should ensure all coaching and training staff have reviewed all OBA and government resources around concussion safety and understand their responsibilities (link below).

OBA link to policy and concussion awareness materials:

<https://ondeck.baseballontario.com/page/2214/concussion-management>

Please Note: ONDECK requires coaches to set up an account and sign-in. There is no cost.

All coaches should familiarize themselves with the Ontario Ministry's Concussion Resources and the Baseball Ontario Code of Conduct pertaining to concussions here:
